This document is intended to show that a good source on my same topic is available. The subject matter of my paper concerns Zionism within Early American Fundamentalism between 1878 through 1918 (or right after the Balfour Declaration went into effect).

The author, D. Rausch, is an expert who has written other books on those topics. He was advised by the same person who has helped me, in fact I am still following Swierenga's action plan – which might also help reunite the two local Reformed denominations?

The image shows a screenshot of an Archive.org search results page for the query "David Rausch". The search results are displayed in a grid of six book covers. The book "Zionism within early American fundamentalism, 1878-1918" by David A. Rausch is highlighted with an orange border. An orange arrow points from this book to a search result for "Dr. Robert P. Swierenga".

The search results for "Dr. Robert P. Swierenga" are shown on the right side of the screenshot. The search results include the text "ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS" and a paragraph of text that is highlighted in purple. The highlighted text reads: "I wish to express my debt of gratitude to a number of individuals and staffs. Dr. Robert P. Swierenga, Dr. Jerome Friedman and Dr. John Snyder the History Department at Kent State University read portions of this manuscript and offered helpful suggestions. Dr. Robert Dyal of the Philosophy and Th".
